SUMMER

PERLMAN STRINGS COLLABORATION

A STRING MUSICIAN'S CHANCE OF A LIFETIME!

Under the baton of internationally acclaimed violin virtuoso and conductor, Itzhak Perlman, this program allows local school-aged string students to come together with an outstanding orchestra of international student musicians. Perlman Music Camp has collaborated with East End Arts School since 2012, and we're thrilled to see it return this summer after a hiatus in 2020.

EEA ROCKS FINAL SHOW - JULY 1ST

Come out on July 1st for EEA Rocks Fall final performance, live on the EEA Campus at 6:00 p.m. Our Live Talent Show will open the show! EEA Rocks has grown to be an amazing jumping stone for our young local musicians. Between their rehearsals and their shows - with many more lining up - each and every one of them has blossomed as an artist through live performance. The students who have taken advantage of this program and their parents have praised this group and their instructors.

FALL PROGRAM NOW ENROLLING

It is not only a performance growth experience, EEA Rocks is also a bonding and experience. Working with other individuals that have the same interests and goals is pinnacle to a young artist. Our Fall EEA Rocks program starts September 17th. All instruments are welcome, you must be at an intermediate to advanced level. Open to ages 9 years to 18 years. Become part of this band family. MOSAIC FESTIVAL IS LABOR DAY WEEKEND!

Family Fun is Back September 5th

Typically, A Memorial Day Weekend tradition where families and friends enjoy the creative spirit together. This year, 2021, Community Mosaic Street Painting Festival will be held on Labor Day Weekend. Join all the artists, musicians, and lovers of the arts, young and old, who gather on the grounds of East End Arts and along the Peconic River for this day-long celebration of the arts, centering around the Street Painting Festival, fashioned after the Italian street painters "Il Madonnari", a street chalk art form dating back to the 16th century, as well as activities and entertainment for everyone. Street painting squares sponsored by businesses, families, and individuals are used as a canvas for inspirations in chalk.

TEACHER SPOTLIGHT: MARK MK

EEA's Newest Music Performance Teacher Specializing in everything Hip Hop

Mark MK has worked with hip hop stars like Jadakiss and Snoop Dogg and has participated in shows with John Legend and Flo Rida. He writes music that can be heard in movie scores like the Universal Picture Bring It On: Fight To The Finish starring Christina Millian. He works with well known brands like TARGET and is very active in the Colon Cancer Foundation. Mark MK has been featured in publications like Vibe Magazine, XXL, Hip Hop Weekly, and Newsday, as well as on BET and CBS. Look for Mark on July 28th singing the National Anthem for the NY Mets! Most notably to us, this summer Mark brings a new program to EEA: Hip Hop & Rap Production.

Mark MK's energy and excitement to help the youth in our community is infectious, and he is thrilled to share his experience working in the music industry with young EEA students. Not only does he share his secrets during the classes but he also brings in some of his friends from Hip Hop Nation among other guests from his musical career. Spier Software, the leader in handheld production equipment, is a gracious program sponsor thanks to their relationship with Mark.

Mark MK will be judging our very first LIVE Talent Show on July 1st and is our Mosaic Festival MC during the September 5th event.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT: JOHN SCHROEDER

When you hear him play, it's hard to believe John, a regular at East End Arts with his involvement with the Music Masters and EEA Rocks, is only 14 years old and just starting 9th grade in the Fall. He plays double bass, bass guitar and enjoys "most" kinds of music. He began playing bass at 9 years old in the fourth-grade school orchestra, and since then his love for music and making music has grown to become the largest part of his life. In addition to participating in his school orchestra and Jazz band, he is a member of EEA, the Metropolitan Youth Orchestra, and the Brookhaven Arts and Music Orchestra. He has participated in festivals including the Suffolk County Music Educators Association Orchestra and Jazz Band, Hampton Music Educators Association Orchestra, Long Island String Festival Association Orchestra, and the New York State School Music Association Solo Festival.

John's life in music has brought him many friendships with both students and teachers across Long Island. These influences have helped John decide that he wants to pursue a career in music. Currently, he is practicing songs for the July 1st EEA Rocks performance, Donna Lee by Charlie Parker, Four by Miles Davis, and Concerto in A minor by Domenico Dragonetti. John's favorite bass players and largest inspirations are Jaco Pastorius and Les Claypool. This young man is truly going places!

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT: DETOUR II ARTISTS

TED VICTORIA

Born and raised here in Riverhead, Ted still considers himself a Blue Wave. He is primarily known for mixed media wall pieces that incorporate the use of a lens light projection system similar to the camera obscura. Victoria incases objects within a box, the reflection of which is projected onto the gallery wall or the glass frame to create "live" images. His DETOUR II piece on display in the EEA Gallery is a light box triptych that is as mesmerizing as it is mischievous. It's a rare occasion where staring isn't impolite but downright expected. Read more

ANNE SHERWOOD PUNDYK

A painter and writer based in Mattituck and Manhattan, Anne's style is easily recognized. Her DETOUR II painting, "Astral 4 (Tattoo)" is mostly blue and hanging beautifully in the 11 West Gallery thanks to its queen size. Across the painting's buckling, seamed, unstretched surface of variously sized, hemmed canvas panels, the overall blue gradually differentiates as many moody, shifting densities and shades: true, violet, cerulean, sky, cobalt, indigo. Painted light reveals the drama, and you may notice a signature circle if you look closely. Read more

TED THIRLBY

Ted scavenges pieces of destroyed plywood and gives them new life. In fact, he thinks of them as rescues and is deeply aware of the living being that was once the tree; that is was used, maybe abused, and then abandoned. He describes his impulse to do this work is an emotional response to these rescued objects as well as showing the complex relationship between humans and the rest of the natural world. His DETOUR II piece, "Telophase", has a particularly interesting story you will learn when you visit it in the 11 West Gallery. We dare you to look at wood the same. Read more

MEMBER FUN: MEET THE MASTERS PROGRAM
